

PROGRAM*
BOOK PRESENTATION
PERSPECTIVES OF CO-EXISTENCE OF EU AND EAEU INTEGRATION PROCESSES: THE CASE OF ARMENIA

(Yerevan, 18 October, 2018)

- Organizers: Friedrich-Ebert-Stiftung, Political Science Association of Armenia
- Date and Time: 18 October, 2018. at 14:00.
- Venue: Opera Suite Hotel, Mozart Hall (Address: 1 Baghramyan Street 1,3, Yerevan).
- 13:30-14:00 Registration.
- Moderator – Benyamin Poghosyan, PhD in History, Executive Director, Political Science Association of Armenia
- 14:05-14:10 Welcoming Address – Felix Hett, Director, FES, South Caucasus
- 14:10-14:15 Welcoming Address – Hayk Kotanjian, Doctor of Political Science, Professor, The Honorary President, Political Science Association of Armenia
- 14:15-14:30 Richard Giragosyan, Founding Director, Regional Studies Center (RSC), an independent “think tank” in Yerevan, Armenia.
- Armenia seeks to bridge the Russian-EU divide.
- 14:30-14:45 Maria Lagutina, PhD in Political Science, Associate Professor, World Politics Department, Saint Petersburg State University, Russian Federation
- Perspectives of Co-Existence of the EU and EAEU Integration Processes.
The Case of Armenia.
- 14:45-15:00 George Vlad Niculescu, Head of Research, European Geopolitical Forum, Brussels, Belgium
- Perspectives of Co-existence of European and Eurasian Integration. Is Armenia a Case Study for Belarus and Moldova?
- 15:00-16:00 Discussion.
- 16:00-17:00 Coffee/Tea.

* The Working language is English with simultaneous Armenian translation